Right now they're inside the book and they're heading for the last chapter.
The chapter which will decide the destinies within a long adventure which has been lived through...
...in a constant increasing whirl of experiences and overthrowing feelings!

FEAR.
HOPE.
TO THROW ONESELF INTO THE UNKNOWN.
Heatherfield
HORROR.
RELIEF.

Yes, loss.
Maybe you have to lose each other in order to find each other again!
That way the Guardians who got separated by the pages in a book, had to meet the past and live through the present while fighting enemies within and outside of themselves...
...and have finally managed to reunite!
Even more aware of the immense importance of their mission!
But united and ready for the final step, the decisive step.
The step towards the only chapter in the book left to be written, a future which to them has never before seemed so black...
Scans and editing by Imalover Translation and edits by Moonclouds217 Curse the copycats

...black like ink.
Complete darkness... after the enormously bright light which shone yout of the opening in the last page - the portal!
What if the dazzled light has made us blind!
Or is it this complete darkness which makes us believe that we can no longer see!
Or there's nothing to see in this chapter, because... everything is left unwritten?
But what's that noise?

And I will do it once and for all by annihilating you for ever, so that the elements will no longer have a place to return to!

Finally I'll be my own master! I will no longer be a slave to anyone!
I'll put the word end in the book of the elements! It is me who will decide what should be written in the postscript for this story!
Decide the postscript! of course!

Ludmoore forced me to take his place as a writer of that book...
Now it's time! The eagerly awaited moment is finally here!
ZWIIIN
Each and every word of mine which was written on these pages became real here in the book of the elements!
If I could create this reality, then maybe I could change it...
I'm ready to absorb the powers of the elements, which are supervised by the Guardians...
...and with them, their lives, which pour inside them, till the last drop!
Because the enemy is too busy, I will be the one who will decide how this story is going to end!
I will write what I absolutely wish to happen...
And my first wish is to... erase the existence of Ludmoore!

Matt is striking the enemy's name off where it's written for the first time in the book...

And by doing that on the following pages it automatically turns out...

...that the real Ludmoore is losing his substance in the real world!

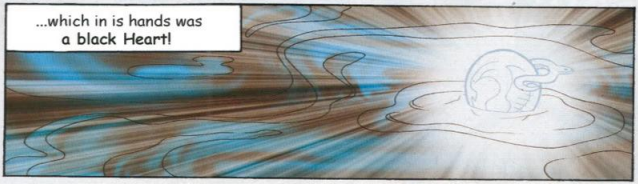
In the book of the elements the name Jonathan Ludmoore no longer exists... it's as he never existed!

He returns to being what he used to be before this story began.

An unknown being, matter without a shape, a slimy substance, which can no longer to manage the weight of the Heart of Kandrakar...

...which in is hands was a black Heart!



Black ink.
Just what Matt needs to turn the page and start to write his ending!
"...one after another the girls opened their eyes in the basement of the book store in Heatherfield. Next to them, Matt Olsen sat, leaned forward and filled in the last pages of a book. The moment had come to..."

Welcome, Guardians!
And welcome to you too, Matt Olsen! You've got the honor of being the first guest to enter the Congregation's hall!
Space tourist!
The wise, the council and Kandrakar are gratefully bowing to you!
Aaah! After all we've been through, it's about time we get to be in the limelight!
Irma!
Do you think we'll have to write autographs too?
You have accomplished the most important mission in the history of the fortress...
...and you made it with surprisingly natural and complete honesty! united, loyal and determined!
You have taught all of us that magic is not something physical, not something to find outside of yourself...

You find it in each and everyone's soul. It's the strength which gives the courage to choose good and fight evil!
A strength without boundaries, which everyone can discover within themselves, even creatures without any magic powers...
...and in front of us today we have proof of what I've just said!
Matt, without your precious contribution, none of you would be here right now! You've had a tremendously important role when it came to defeating Ludmoore!
You have proven that you possess great powers!
I will say no more... before a certain girl says I'm a real windbag! By the way, all the other words would be unnecessary...
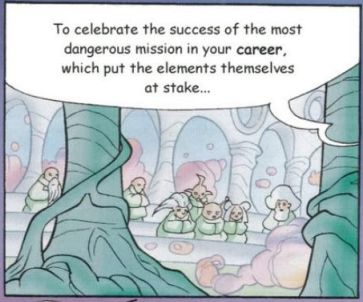
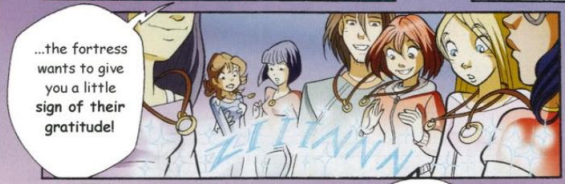
...Thank you!



To celebrate the success of the most dangerous mission in your career, which put the elements themselves at stake...

Kandrakar will arrange a big party in your honor! You will be called when it's time, but before returning to Heatherfield...



...the fortress wants to give you a little sign of their gratitude!

Wow!
Wonderful!
Thanks, grandma!
There, now leave! For far too long you've been...

"...away from home!"
I'm going back to the book shop for a while! I've go tone last thing to do...

I've got a feeling that Cedric's destiny hurt her more than she wants to admit...
Yeah... poor Orube!

And poor Matt! How's he going to find a trustworthy apology to explain that he's been gone for so long?
Do you want me to go with you? Maybe I could...

I don't know, Emily... maybe I should just go for the classic look!
Some extravagance brings out your elegance, Dean!
PFFT! Since when did you get so poetic?
Collins and Warton! Now that's a real scoop!
Excuse me... everything's so complicated!
Trust me! Am I your marriage witness or not?
That's exactly what makes me worried!
They're acting so silly! I can't wait to tell the other girls!
CORNELIA?
Well, have you found anything you like yet?
I... no, actually I haven't!

Are you saying I dragged you through all stores in Heatherfield, just to go home empty-handed?
It's just that... I can't find what I have in mind anywhere, mom!
I'm beginning to think that what you want is only in your head!
You wouldn't be satisfied until I got you a personal stylist!

Of course I'll help you! I was working on the sketches for my dress just now!
What do you think?
Ahum... original! But I was thinking of something more classic now...

"No problem! I'll get on it right away!"
Um... I thought the bride was supposed to be Mrs. Vandom!
Your lack of elegance doesn't surprise me at all!

Kidding aside, we're glad to have you back, Olsen!
Yeah, but the next time you feel like moving out of the way...

Thanks, guys! You've shown respect and been discreet! You haven't asked me anything, only received me as if nothing had happened...
Anyway, I think we should celebrate this somehow...
